Dear Deepstambh Family,

July was a month of new beginnings, meaningful milestones and renewed trust. Entrance results, interviews and admissions brought deserving students closer to opportunity; competitive-examination selections celebrated courage and perseverance; and distinguished visitors, mentors and supporters strengthened the inclusive ecosystem we are building together.

Every achievement at Manobal reminds us that talent is everywhere - opportunity is not. Our shared responsibility is to ensure that every student can move forward with dignity, confidence and self-reliance.

A NEW ACADEMIC JOURNEY

Entrance Results, Interviews And Career Guidance

During July, Deepstambh Foundation - Manobal completed the declaration of entrance-examination results, student interviews and faculty-guidance sessions across its campuses. Faculty members and counsellors interacted personally with aspiring students, helping them recognise their strengths and identify suitable educational and career pathways. For many deserving learners, this admission process marked the beginning of a new journey.

GOVERNANCE WITH PURPOSE

Reviewing progress and preparing for sustainable growth

The First Quarter Advisory Board Meeting for the new financial year was held in Pune. Board members and experts reviewed progress, discussed strategic priorities and helped define the Foundation's plans and goals. Their guidance will strengthen Deepstambh Foundation - Manobal's mission and support its sustainable growth.

WORDS THAT STAYED WITH US

Dr. Bharat Pandya reflects on the spirit of Manobal

“If I had never visited Deepstambh Manobal, my understanding of life would have remained incomplete. We all live for ourselves, but those who dedicate their lives to others become true legends. Most of us only see the struggles of others; Yajurvendra Sir chose to understand them, study them and work tirelessly to create lasting solutions. That is what makes Deepstambh Manobal a place of hope, transformation and humanity.”

- Dr. Bharat Pandya

President of Rotary International for the year 2028–29.

A VISIT THAT INSPIRED US

Hon. Former Chief Justice of India Shri Bhushan Gavai at Manobal

One of July's most memorable moments was the visit of Hon. Former Chief Justice of India Shri Bhushan Gavai to the Deepstambh Foundation - Manobal campus in Jalgaon. He toured the campus and appreciated its inclusive model of education, accessible infrastructure and holistic support for students with disabilities, orphan students, transgender individuals and youth from underprivileged backgrounds.

Deeply impressed by the Foundation's mission and impact, he expressed appreciation for its transformative work and assured the Deepstambh family of his continued support and encouragement. His visit was a proud milestone, inspiring students, staff and supporters while reaffirming the importance of inclusive education and equal opportunity.

PARTNERSHIPS FOR INCLUSION

Accessibility, institutional support and shared responsibility

Marico Team at Jalgaon

Mr. Ninand Chalke, HR Manager, and Mr. Ravindra Tikle, Production Manager, representing the Marico CSR team, visited the Jalgaon campus and engaged with the Foundation's work and student ecosystem.

Enable Me Access Team at Pune

Peter Gibson, Founder and Director, and Anubha Singhal, Co-founder and Director, visited the Pune campus as part of an accessibility-audit interaction. Their insights highlighted capacity building, accessible architecture, inclusive design and research-driven accessibility practices.

MENTORS WHO STRENGTHENED ASPIRATIONS

Meaningful interactions at Manobal Delhi

Mr. Jojo Mathew- The Founder of ALS IAS described Manobal as an innovative and truly inclusive educational initiative and expressed willingness to personally mentor students.

Mr. Abhijit Aher - The UPSC CSE 2024 and Indian Forest Service achiever interacted with students after a special Braille welcome and shared practical guidance from his preparation journey.

Mr. Vaibhav Gaikwad, IPS -The 2018-batch Telangana Cadre officer, serving as DCP, Task Force, Hyderabad City, spoke about leadership, discipline, perseverance and his UPSC journey.

Mr. Krishna M. Shirsath - The Project Director of DDRC, Dhule, and Executive Board Member of Harijan Sevak Sangh, Maharashtra, visited the Delhi campus for a meaningful interaction.

A COMMUNITY THAT CELEBRATES WITH PURPOSE

Visits, birthdays and long-standing bonds

Mr. Milind Joshi and Family - Mr. Joshi celebrated his birthday with students at the Pune campus. Following Deepstambh's special tradition, students prepared a fruit cake and shared heartfelt wishes.

Mr. Ramdas Hopal and Mrs. Meena Hopal - After years of following Manobal's work, the couple visited the campus and marked Mr. Hopal's birthday and retirement as a Principal from Akot, Akola, by contributing towards student education. He described the visit as a long-cherished dream fulfilled.

Dr. Kantilal Tatiya - A long-time supporter from Shahada, Dr. Tatiya revisited the Jalgaon campus after several years and reaffirmed his desire to remain closely associated with the mission.

Dr. Nitin Mane - Dr. Nitin Mane from Bharati Vidyapeeth visited Deepstambh Foundation - Manobal for a meaningful campus interaction.

RESULTS THAT MAKE US PROUD

ZINDAGI NA MILEGI DOBARA – UK TOUR

Deepstambh Foundation – Manobal's "Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara" UK Tour carried the message of inclusion, dignity and opportunity across different cities in the United Kingdom.

Led by Shri Yajurvendra Mahajan, the tour brought together Marathi communities, professionals, social leaders, entrepreneurs and well-wishers to share the journey of Manobal and explore future support for inclusive education.

Key Highlights of the UK Tour

- The tour created awareness about Deepstambh Manobal's work for persons with disabilities, orphan students, transgender individuals and students from low-income backgrounds.
- our students Mauli Adkar and Naznin Shaikh inspired audiences across cities through their extraordinary musical performances.
- Mauli's harmonium performance and Naznin's soulful singing became powerful reminders that talent needs opportunity, not sympathy.
- The tour strengthened emotional and social connections with the Indian and Marathi diaspora in the UK.
- Meaningful discussions opened possibilities for future collaboration, support and global partnerships.
- Mr. Rudresh Patil, Student Development Head, coordinated the programs and helped ensure smooth execution across cities.

CITY-WISE JOURNEY

Coventry

The journey began with a visit to EV TEC, an inclusive workplace where nearly 40% of the workforce consists of persons with disabilities. The visit showed how inclusion and excellence can go hand in hand.

Manchester

The Manchester event was coordinated by Neelima, Yogesh, and their friends and family members. It created a warm platform to introduce Manobal's work and build community connections.

Kent

Hosted inside a church, the Kent program became a beautiful symbol of culture and inclusion. Naznin Shaikh's Marathi devotional song dedicated to Lord Vitthal deeply moved the audience.

Special thanks to Shrirang Joshi and family, Marathi Mandal Kent UK, Shilpa Joshi and Kedar Salgarkar.

CITY-WISE JOURNEY

London

The London program, hosted by Maharashtra Mandal London, helped share Deepstambh Manobal's journey with distinguished personalities and well-wishers.
Heartfelt thanks to Maharashtra Mandal London, Sam Dada, and the entire organizing team.

Reading

Organized by Marathi Mandal Reading UK, the Reading event was marked by inspiration and strong community support. A special highlight was the presence of Mr. Rehan Siddiqui, a Microsoft professional with locomotor disability. Thanks to Vrishali Keskar, Amit Keskar, Mahesh Sir, Appu Tai, and the Reading team.

Birmingham

The Birmingham program was beautifully organized by Marathi Karaoke Club, Birmingham. The presence of Councillor Dr. Nitish Raut, Mayor of Sutton Coldfield, UK, and his family made the event even more special.
Thanks to Aditi, Srikanth, Prajakta, Maneesh, Gulshan, Kuldeep, and the entire team.

CITY-WISE JOURNEY

Milton Keynes

The final leg of the UK tour was supported by Kala Sanskruti UK and Shri Shirdi Saibaba Temple, Milton Keynes.

Deepstambh Manobal thanks Bhagyashree Rawrane Madam, her family, Raj Dada, and everyone who made the team feel at home.

GRATITUDE

Deepstambh Foundation – Manobal expresses heartfelt gratitude to Nilesh Sir and his circle of friends, senior Marathi poet Ashok Naigavkar, Prachi Naigavkar, Pragnya Naigavkar, Haresh Dada, all volunteers, organizers, Marathi Mandals, community groups and well-wishers who made this journey meaningful.

From Jalgaon to the world, Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara was not just a tour. It was a journey of ability, culture, inclusion and collaboration.

Every performance, every interaction and every conversation strengthened one belief:

When society creates opportunity with dignity, human potential can travel beyond every boundary.

A GESTURE OF GRATITUDE AND GIVING

When a student becomes a changemaker

Prahlad Magdum, a residential student from the Jalgaon project, celebrated his birthday by contributing Rs. 10,000 to the Foundation. His thoughtful gesture reflects the spirit of giving back and shows how students themselves can become changemakers in the journeys of others.

BE A PART OF THIS JOURNEY

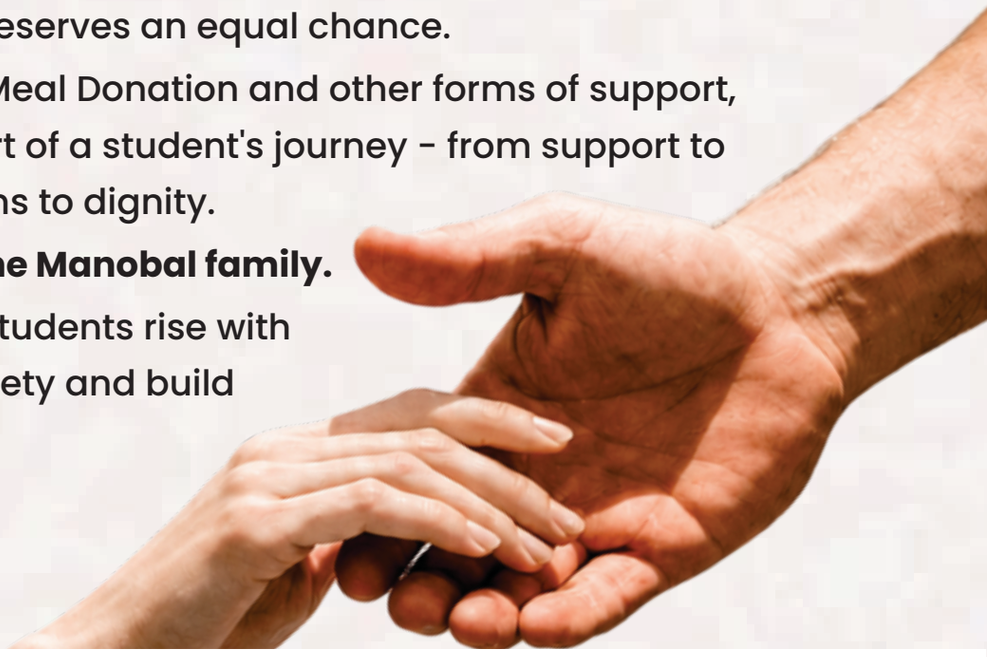

Support that helps dreams stand on their own feet

Every student at Manobal carries a dream. Some need education, residence and meals. Others need technology, mentorship, career guidance or emotional support. Sometimes, what changes a life is simply the belief that every person deserves an equal chance.

Through Deepstambh Mitra, Meal Donation and other forms of support, well-wishers can become part of a student's journey - from support to self-reliance, and from dreams to dignity.

Thank you for walking with the Manobal family.

Together, we can help more students rise with confidence, contribute to society and build lives of dignity.
